Submitted Ex Parte and Under Seal

Hon. Pamela K. Chen United States District Court Judge Eastern District of New York 225 Cadman Plaza East Brooklyn, NY 11201

Re: In Re the Appointment of Pamela K. Chen as Special Master, Miscellaneous Docket No. 17-1282 (PKC)

Dear Judge Chen:

We represent Felix Sater ("Mr. Sater" f/k/a "John Doe") in the above-captioned matter and, as directed by the Court, set forth Mr. Sater's position with regard to the unsealing of the documents on the docket United States of America v. Doe, 10-2905-cr (2d. Cir) (the "Appellate Docket") in advance of the hearing scheduled for June 15, 2017 at 10:30 AM.

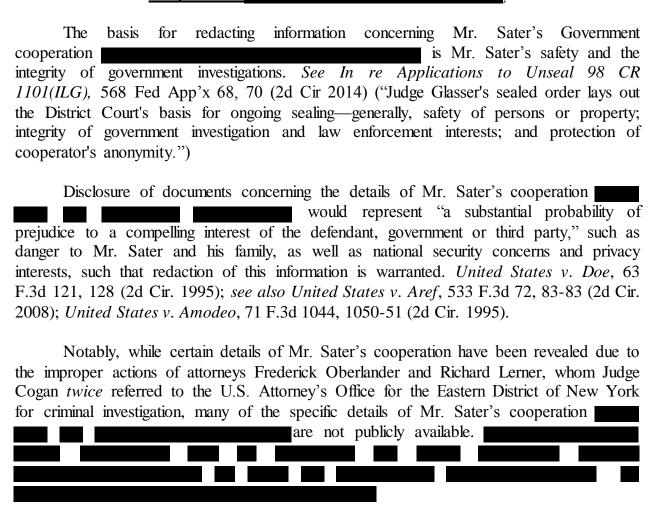

For the reasons described herein and in the Government's submission filed earlier today, Mr. Sater joins in the Government's position with respect to all of the documents which they identify to remain under seal, indicating in most respects that only partial redactions are required.

We request additional redactions to certain documents on the Appellate Docket not sought by the Government that refer to: (i) the specific details of Mr. Sater's Government cooperation

(ii) information sourced from Mr. Sater's stolen presentence investigation report ("PSR") and financial affidavit; and (iii) information sealed in other proceedings. With regard to documents that refer to these topics, Mr. Sater requests that such documents be redacted and/or sealed, as set forth in more detail below.

Information Concerning Details of Mr. Sater's Government Cooperation

Mr. Sater's PSR and Other Documents Previously Sealed by the Court

With regard to details contained in Mr. Sater's PSR, Judge I. Leo Glasser of the Eastern District of New York has repeatedly cited United States v. Charmer Industries, Inc. 711 F.2d. 1164, 1175 (2d Cir. 1983), holding that, absent a compelling demonstration that disclosure is required to meet the ends of justice, disclosure of the PSR should not be authorized. In particular, Judge Glasser found in this case "that the PSR, information sourced from the PSR, and the details of the cooperation agreement must remain sealed." In re Motion for Civil Contempt, 12 Misc. 557 (E.D.N.Y.) (PKC), Dkt. No. 162 at 3 (emphasis added), aff'd In re Applications to Unseal 98 CR 1101(ILG), 568 Fed Appx 68, 70 (2d Cir 2014). Specifically, the Second Circuit stated that Mr. Sater's PSR is "of dubious utility [] except as a tool to intimidate and harass [Mr. Sater] by subjecting him to danger." Roe v. United States, 2011 WL 2559016, at *7 (2d Cir. 2011).

More recently, Judge Cogan issued an order on June 21, 2016, unsealing substantially all of the documents in the docket of the case In re Motion for Civil Contempt, 12 Misc. 557 (E.D.N.Y.) (PKC), while keeping the documents concerning Mr. Sater's PSR and the details of his government cooperation under seal. See In re Motion for Civil Contempt, 12 Misc. 557 (E.D.N.Y.) (PKC), Dkt. No. 187, Sealing Order at 9 ("the PSR, and any documents containing information sourced from the PSR, must remain sealed.") Judge Cogan specifically found that "both Sater and the Government have compelling interests, both in Sater's safety and the integrity of this and future federal investigations. These interests – particularly when viewed in conjunction with one another – are compelling, and the unsealing of these documents would create a substantial probability of harm to those interests." Id. at 11.

In upholding Judge Cogan's Sealing Order, the Second Circuit held "there is a strong interest in secrecy because both John Doe's safety as a cooperator and the Government's interest in protecting the identity of cooperators are implicated. The District Court ... properly determined that sealing was appropriate for John Doe's PSR, documents containing information sourced from the PSR, documents sealed in related proceedings, and documents submitted by the United States Attorney's Office addressing the John Doe's cooperation." Doe v Lerner, 2017 WL 1406457, at *2 (2d Cir Apr. 20, 2017) (internal citations omitted).

In light of the foregoing, Mr. Sater's position with regard to the documents in the Appellate Docket is as follows:
